WARTE NICHT'S HANDICAP.

Despite the off-day card presented to patrons of Hawthorne yesterday, the usual good crowd was in attendance. Apart from the excellent contest in the third race the sport was somewhat tame. The track was in excellent condition. Warte Nicht's mile in 1:40 $\frac{1}{2}$  clearly showing that the top covering of sand placed on the course before the season opened had thoroughly been compacted with the under soil.

The most important race of the day was the third, a handicap purse of $1,000, for three-year-olds and upward. The adjustment of the weights gave the race a very open aspect and the result proved it, as the two rank outsiders in the betting, Warte Nicht and Ahola, ran one two respectively. The betting in this race was heavy, Schwalbe being backed into favoritism by post time. Toah, however, was generously backed, while a number thought well of Lucien Appleby's chances. To a good start the light-weighted Ahola, closely attended by Bragg, went to the front with Lucien Appleby bringing up the rear. Down the backstretch there was little change in positions, but when turning into the last quarter there was a general closing up. Nearing the last eighth post Warte Nicht gradually forged to the front and remained there to the end, winning easily by one length from Ahola, which finished a neck before Toah for second place. Ahola tired slightly in the closing strides after showing much speed. Toah lost some ground by turning wide into the home stretch, but finished going fast in the deep center of the track under a powerful ride, just getting up in time to nip Bragg on the post for third place. The latter ran his usual honest race and showed much speed, but could not concede the weight and was tiring fast at the end. Lucien Appleby was taken next to the inside rail after entering the last quarter, but tired badly when a furlong out and was well spent long before the line had been reached. He appears to have trained off and runs nowhere near to the excellent form he showed as a three-year-old. Schwalbe displayed her usual speed, but faded away in the sharp last sixteenth struggle. Huzzah ran a dull race and was never a serious contender.

The opening race of the day, a four and a half furlongs dash for maiden two-year-olds, brought an unwieldy field of fifteen to the post. The winner turned up in the well backed Martius, which opened at 4 to 1 and receded to 11 to 5 by post time. Martius, closely attended by Wm. Wright, showed the way to the final eighth post, where the latter faltered and the former had little trouble in moving away and winning by one length from Instructor, which finished a neck before Wm. Wright for second place. Instructor ran a good race, showing much speed and outgaming Wm. Wright in the closing strides for second place.

The steeplechase over the short course proved an easy thing for Ceylon, which jumped cleanly throughout and came away at call after taking the last jump, winning easily by three and a half lengths from Arius, which finished the same distance before Alma Girl for second place. Arius' jockey lost his stirrups after taking the tenth jump and this hampered him somewhat in making his stretch run. The horse jumped well but appeared to lose a little ground after taking each obstacle. Spurs fell over the seventh jump and Slap Dash lost his rider over the last.

The fourth race, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles, was taken by Bard of Avon, against whose chances as good as 5 to 1 could be had. He displayed keen speed throughout and tiptoeing the field all the way won much as his rider pleased by four lengths from Kilmore, which finished a neck before Louisville for second place. Kilmore came with a rush at the end just getting up in time to nip the tiring Louisville on the post for second place. The latter appears to have trained off somewhat and is not near as good a mare as she was last year. Anna Beall showed much early speed and Zella Knight ran a good race for six furlongs.

Trompeuse, coming with a sensational rush in the closing strides, took the fifth race. Blumenthal, closely pressed by My Gem, showed the way to the head of the stretch, where the former retired. Opposite the last eighth post it appeared as if My Gem would win, but in the final sixteenth Trompeuse came with a great rush and easily passing into the lead in the last hundred yards won going away by two lengths from Sweetie, which finished a head before My Gem for second place. Buccaneer finished a bang-up fourth.

The last race of the day, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds, went to Postmaster Wright, but not in the easy manner expected. Galba closed up on him in the final eighth and brought him to a hard drive, but he gradually drew away in the closing strides winning by a short length, Galba finishing three and a half before Sir Hugh for second place. Galba showed great gameness under punishment and probably ran the best race of his career.

NORTHERN HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

The Northern Handicap is the most important stake yet remaining to be disposed of at Hawthorne this year, and is set for decision next Saturday. The weights assigned by Secretary Clark appear below and are so adjusted as to assure a good field. The race is at a mile and a quarter, with $5,000 added.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bathampton—Balance II. (trained by C. J. Smith).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Counterpoise made the running throughout under a pull and Bullman let out a link in the stretch and finished easing up. Illyria held his own while going up the backstretch and, moving up with a rush from the three-eighths post home, finished fast and ran in suddenly improved form. He was worked out an additional half after the finish. Futurita got away none too well and went up the backstretch in close quarters, but with clear sailing closed up fast at the end. Tristesse displayed a lot of speed when she went after the winner on the stretch turn and the effort tired her right at the end, but at that Hicks was caught napping for second place. Leipsic, a slow beginner, closed a big gap from a bad start. Salvatella was not good enough at the weight. Squanto, nearly left, made up a lot of ground. Duke of Kendal was crossed and knocked back a half dozen lengths after which he was securely pocketed until too late and was pulled up at the end.

Scratched—39221 Athelroy, 111; 40455 Our Nugget, 106; 39325 General Prig, 106; Pen-dard, 106.

Corrected weights—Illyria, 111; Miss Dorothy, 101.

Overweights—Counterpoise, 1 pound; Futurita, 2; Tristesse, 3.

Winner—Ch. g. by Jills Johnson—Glenleven (trained by B. Pope).

Went to post at 2:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Highbee suddenly found his speed and was heavily backed, led throughout and decisively outpaced and outjumped the favorite. Walter Cleary was ridden a waiting race and not only failed to jump with his usual freedom, but was dull of speed. He pulled up very lame after the finish and is probably broken down. Gum Honey ran a steady, consistent race and shows constant improvement. Manillian was well up for half the journey.

Scratched—31391 Idle Ways, 149; 40308 Gascar, 146.

Winner—Br. c. by Kingstock—Carmencita (trained by A. Shields).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. An unusual spectacle was afforded when Andy Williams at once took a prominent position and held it under a pull for the first seven furlongs and, after appearing an absolute certainty and leading into the stretch, he was unexpectedly under a hard drive to get home by a nose. Daisy Green found the slightly wet going very favorable and forced the running at a steady clip, which she sustained with unexpected gameness. Lady Potentate was a really good mare today and, capably ridden, might have scored over the sulky winner at the end. She got away poorly and went to the outside, losing much ground on the turn, but finished fast and is a superior class mare over a distance of ground. Tribes Hill found this company too hot, especially on a track not to his liking. Past was going well in the homestretch and is evidently rounding to.

Scratched—40452 Kingraine, 106.

Corrected weights—Earl of Warwick, 99.

Overweights—Andy Williams, 1 pound.

FARLEY NOT REINSTATED.

The Stewards of the Western Jockey Club met in called session yesterday to review the evidence in the case of the persons ruled off recently at Detroit for complicity in the case where it was alleged Aimless was raced under the name of Sarah Black, the matter being in the form of an appeal by E. E. Farley and others from the ruling of the Detroit Jockey Club. Sessions to hear testimony were held yesterday afternoon and at night, with the result that the following decision was promulgated last night:

"In the matter of the appeal of E. E. Farley and others from the decision of the Detroit Jockey Club ruling them off the turf, the Stewards of the Western Jockey Club affirm the finding and refuse the parties reinstatement."

THE PICKET AT SARATOGA.

The Picket is in Saratoga. Middleton & Jungbluth's American Derby winner, the conqueror of Savable and Claude, four times a Derby winner in the west, arrived from Chicago today in the charge of Carroll Reid. The trip was made safely an expeditiously except for a three hours' delay at Albany, which did not in the least upset the good temper of The Picket. When his train pulled into the Delaware & Hudson Railway station at 2 o'clock The Picket and his five traveling companions were tearing off mouthfuls of hay from bales situated conveniently near their stalls. He was ready near, says a letter of July 20, from Saratoga to Morning Telegraph.

"You would not suppose that that fellow had just finished a tiresome twelve-hundred-mile trip in a crowded car, would you?" remarked Mr. Reid, as he eyed The Picket affectionately. "He is as sober and unconcerned as he was the day he entered the cars. I do not believe the trip has affected him. But I cannot, of course, speak authoritatively on that subject until I have sent him out for a stiff gallop."

"When he will gallop depends, of course, upon the weather here."

All the horsemen at Horse Haven and the big track of the Saratoga Association were anxious to have a look at the horse which ran away from the gallant Savable and won the richest and most coveted of American three-year-old races after having led all the way. Mr. Reid was unable to gratify them.

A pelting rain was falling when the train arrived, and The Picket was led from his car covered completely by blankets and a waterproof jacket to keep away colds. Only his legs, his tail, his muzzle and his ears were visible. I was luckier than the horsemen. Mr. Reid stripped the colt for me in the car before leading him out.

The Picket is not a horse of the heroic mold of Water Boy and Irish Lad. He more nearly suggests Goldsmith or stout little Roehampton. He is a stocky bay, high at the withers, powerfully muscled about the shoulders and quarters and nicely coupled. He stands a bit over 15 hands 3 inches. His back is short and his body is supported by four cleanly chiseled sinewy legs. The hind ones were free enough from pimples and windgalls, but the forelegs were swathed in bandages.

"He is not unsound," Mr. Reid told me, when I looked inquiringly at the bandages. "Those wrappings are merely a precaution. This colt never took a lame step in his life. But he struck himself on the near foreleg just above the ankle in the American Derby. I am not certain whether this occurred as he was leaving the post or after the finish, when they threw a floral horseshoe over his neck. The bright colors of the flowers and the clamor of the crowd startled him. He jumped quickly to one side."

"He did not become lame from this knock, but a few days afterward boils formed on the injured leg. I poulticed them pretty much as a mother poultices a boy's neck, and in due course they opened naturally. The Picket was restive while the boils were coming to heads, but picked up immediately after they burst. I put the bandages on the legs to keep away infection."

The Picket will be out on the track in a few days. It is Mr. Reid's intention, if all goes well with the Falsetto colt, to start him in the Travers Stakes at one mile and a furlong, to be run on Saturday, August 8, as a side light to the Saratoga Special. That will probably be the first race of the American Derby winner in this part of the country. He will not meet Africander, Golden Maxim or Irish Lad, the star three-year-olds of the eastern division. They are not Travers eligibles.

But he may meet Whorler, Reliable, Fire Eater and a few other second raters, so that we may readily find out just where he belongs. After the Travers he will fill his other dates here and then go to Sheepshead Bay to make the Fall circuit. Mr. Reid and the Falsetto colt's owners always believed that he would make a good horse over a distance of ground, so they engaged him liberally in all the Autumnal specials.

Out west The Picket ran in the firm name of Middleton & Jungbluth. Here, according to the racing calendar of last week, he will bear the colors of Carl Jungbluth. So will the other members of the Middleton & Jungbluth string—the three-year-olds Shooting Star and Stanton and the two-year-olds Jason and Requirer—who came east with the Derby winner.

Although Mr. Jungbluth is a New York man, a wealthy licorice manufacturer with offices in Fifth avenue, he and Col. Middleton, his racing partner, who is a Kentuckian, have heretofore confined their racing operations to the west. The Picket is the first good horse the ever brought east. Mr. Jungbluth's name will be used in these parts because he calls himself an eastern man. Mr. Jungbluth and Col. Middleton, who is a tobacco manufacturer of Louisville, race horses purely for sport. They love the game, but are such busy men they really have no chance to see their horses run. Mr. Jungbluth was in Europe when The Picket won the American Derby. Col. Middleton, however, was at Chicago.

Since The Picket has shown first-class form by winning the Derby, Mr. Jungbluth has decided to come back home and see him race in the east. He will sail from Liverpool on July 22 and be here for the Saratoga Association's opening. Col. Middleton and Mr. Jungbluth are particularly pleased with The Picket because they bred him. They have a farm in Kentucky, which is the home of the Volante mare Voltario. They sent Voltario, some four years ago, over to the farm of their Louisville neighbor, George J. Long, to be bred to Falsetto. The Picket was the result of that union.

Went to post at 3:20. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Malakoff got away all tangled up, never got to going well until in the last quarter, ran all around his field, came with a rush in the homestretch and won going away. Henry Waite was away running, but dropped out of it in the first three-eighths and then came again in the stretch. Ericula ran well, but swerved badly in the stretch in front of False Entry. This caused O'Connor, on the latter, to pull up. Lucian and The World showed early speed.
Corrected weights—The World, 110.
Overweights—False Entry, 4 pounds.
Malakoff, show, evens. Henry Waite, show, 2 to 1. Ericula, show, out.

Amigari showed much the most speed, went to the front when his rider was ready and opened up a winning gap while rounding the far turn. Artist had to go all around his field to get up and finished well. Clarena showed improvement. Brookston got off well, but was pulled up right after the start and made up much ground. Winner—Ch. g. by Flying Dutchman—Cadm (trained by J. Arthur).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. Martius showed speed throughout, and, although closely pressed by Wm. Wright and Instructor for four furlongs, gradually drew away in the closing strides under a clever ride. Instructor stood a long stretch drive with gameness and outstayed Wm. Wright. The latter displayed speed throughout, but hung just a shade in the closing strides. Blackwolf finished going fast and would have been third in a few more strides. Lanark showed improvement and bears watching hereafter. Sir Andrew ran a fair race from where he got off. The others were never serious contenders.

Postmaster Wright moved up fast when turning for home, but just after straightening out he was joined by Galba, the two fighting it out hard all through the stretch. In the last hundred yards Postmaster Wright proved the gamer and, under a hard drive, gradually drew away. Galba showed improvement and undoubtedly ran the best race of his career. Sir Hugh caught Rossmund tiring in the final strides and got up in time to nip him on the post for third place. The latter showed much speed, but tired rapidly in the final eighth.

Long Shot is a fast colt and the going, which was quite wet and slippery by this time, evidently helped to make him stay. As it was he scored a lucky win, stealing a long and winning lead on the stretch turn after having followed the early pacemaker closely from the start. The Southerner was much the best and came at the end with a belated rush. He was unable to stride freely in the beginning on account of the state of the going and Gannon was inclined to accept defeat too early in the game, but the colt commenced to gain so rapidly that he went to work on him and only just failed to get up. Mohave was shuffled back to last at the half, but closed up a lot of ground at the end, getting up in time to secure third money in the last stride. Juvenal Maxim displayed plenty of early speed and was always a prominent contender, retiring only in the last sixteenth. Bob Murphy and Tim Payne were both overweighed.
Scratched—40284 Yellow Hammer, 107.
Overweights—Juvenal Maxim, 4 pounds.
Long Shot, show, 2 to 1. The Southerner, show, out. Mohave, show, 7 to 5. Bob Murphy, show, 7 to 10. Goldspink, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Br. c, by Giganteum—Rosa Regina (trained by H. T. Griffin).
Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second easily. Floral King evidently outclassed his field and led unextended throughout, winning with ridiculous ease. Lida Leib was the only serious contender and, favored by the going, ran in improved form. Donnelly held on gamely in the first flight from start to finish. Phaser, a good looker, got away in the rear division and, making up a lot of ground, finished with a rush. My Sister ran a game and speedy race. Midshipman, under severe punishment, just about held his position. Floradale has been highly tried and can do better.

Winner—Ch. f, by Crighton—Nellie Bell (trained by W. L. Oliver).
Went to post at 4:55. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Gaviota, good, would far outclass this field. She made the running hard held to the far turn, where she seemed done for, but being game she stuck to her work in a long final drive and scored by a head. Ella Snyder moved up at the half and engaged the winner in a long and game battle to the finish, showing improved form. Dekaber was inadequately handled in the final drive, Mathews' finish being noticeably weak. Courtenay was a good horse, ridden by a slow jockey, and should have been closer up. The others were beaten off early in the race.
Corrected weights—Sir Ellerslie, 111.

Went to post at 2:35. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. King Rose laid away from the early pace and came fast on the outside in the stretch and won going away. Jake did his best and had no mishaps. The Advocate was hard ridden throughout, but tired under pressure. Require showed early speed, but quit badly in the last sixteenth. Ranchman was practically left at the post and was not persevered with.
King Rose, show, 2 to 5. Jake, show, out. The Advocate, show, 3 to 5.

Went to post at 3:02. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Dr. Clark regained his true form suddenly, was much the best and won going away. Axares made the pace until well into the stretch and as the race was run was easily best of the others. Chandoo was vigorously ridden throughout and ran a very poor race at all stages. Kittie Clyde had no mishaps and ran about to her late form. Lelia Barr showed speed for about three-quarters and then quit badly and her race should be thrown out.

Dr. Clark, show, 1 to 2. Axares, show, 7 to 10. Kittie Clyde, show, 2 to 5. Chandoo, show, 1 to 3.

Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second easily. Ancke was outrun early, but went to the front when called on and finished like a real good one. Olonetz showed speed and was the best of the others. A Lark was given a weak ride, but under no circumstances did he have a chance to beat the winner. Mimo showed a high order of speed for five-eighths and then quit badly. The other two could never get up.

Went to post at 3:56. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Clifton Forge showed the most speed throughout, was much the best and was never in trouble after going the first hundred yards. Forehand did his best and was much the best of the others. These two colts are good ones. Imboden was swerving all over the track at the end and his race was not in keeping with his last previous one. Talhouet finished well. The two leaders are perhaps the best two-year-olds shown here this season.
Overweights—Scalper, 2 pounds.

Linden Ella displayed speed and will be hard to beat hereafter in her class. Star Gazer went well to the last eighth, then tired. Orleans gave away after going six furlongs. Lacache was caught in a bad jam after the start, made up much ground and ran a good race. Sid Silver ran a winning race from where he got off and might have won had he not swung wide in the stretch. Defacio had no mishaps. Neither had Vicerne.
